A Pension which will Do No Good.

There used to be a man who lived in Janesville by the name of Michael Shay. During the war he joined company B, of the 37th Wisconsin, and was twice wounded. In consequence of these wounds he was discharged and was more or less disabled by them. After the passage of the act he made application for a pension. His discharge papers, together with a certificate of a physician as to his disability, were sent to Washington, and nothing more was heard of the matter until yesterday morning, when Register of Deeds Valentine received from Washington Shay's pension papers, by which he was entitled to draw four dollars a month from July, 1865 to the present time, the aggregate amounting to over $800. But poor Shay is not here to enjoy the benefits of his pension. He was frozen to death last January near Milwaukee, and we believe has no relatives in this part of the country.

Cases of Fair Dealing in the Desert of Human Life.

In some cases recently the newspapers are speaking of equity ruling where the law does not give a remedy—especially in the case of a corporation (corporations are often soulless). The Louisiana State Lottery Company—a lady complained her ticket (winning one-half of No. 43, 713, which drew the first prize of $30,000) had been fraudulently obtained; after litigation the contestants compromised amicably, each taking half. A lady residing in New York city had lost her ticket in the mail, but on application to M. A. Dauphin, President of the Louisiana State Lottery Co., at New Orleans, La., obtained the number, learned it had drawn $10,000, filed a caveat, proved her right, and after a proper delay had her money paid to her. Such acts make one think that there are cases of fair dealing in the desert of human life.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 2 degrees above zero, and at one p. m. at 20 degrees above.

Clear, north wind, backing to northeast. For the same hours one year ago the register was 18 and 30 degrees above zero.

The Coming Picnic.

Newell & Scott's comedy company will give Muldoon's Picnic at the opera house next Friday and Saturday evenings, regardless of Wigwags' storm. There is no doubt as to the merit of this performance.

It is laughable beyond measure, almost, and in this respect is doing some excellent missionary work. When the company was in Baltimore a short time since the American noticed the performance in this wise: "The academy of music was crowded last night to witness the great comedy, Muldoon's Picnic. Standing room being at a premium. We must congratulate Messrs. Newell & Scott on having an excellent company, and they deserve success. The Muldoon and Mulcahy was the best we have ever seen in the Picnic in this city."

Gatherings To-Night.

—Wisconsin lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. at Odd Fellows' hall.

—Prof. Severance's dancing school at Apollo hall.

—Fun at the roller skating rink, in Young America hall.

—Rev. C. M. Pullen's lecture before the Y. M. C. A. at their rooms at the east end of Milwaukee street bridge.

—Endowment rank K. P. at Castle hall.

Emerald Grove.

School closed last Friday. The two departments united in some interesting exercises. The teachers, Misses Rose Wood and Cora Spear have given good satisfaction, although there has been a small attendance of pupils.

—Willie Irish left for Dakota on Monday.

—We observe John Duthie is hauling his goods to Janesville, preparatory to moving to Dakota.

—Anson Marshall, who has been in the employ of James W. Dean, is unfortunately mixed up in a case of mental aberration. His condition is such that it was necessary to remove him to the county asylum for the insane last Friday.

—Peter Sehenek returned last Saturday from Dakota. His family have moved.

into the Joiner house next the hotel property.

—Chas. Ketchpaw, of Elk Horn, is visiting at his brother-in-law's A. C. Munger.

MILTON.

—The Seventh Day Baptist society, of Milton, having so far completed their new church edifice as to have it ready for occupancy, and propose furnishing a grand oyster supper in the Sabbath school room adjoining the edifice, on Monday, March 12th. Supper furnished for those desiring it from 5 to 7 o'clock p. m. Literary and other exercises in the auditorium at 7 1/2 o'clock, which will consist of select readings by Mrs. Day, of Janesville, Mrs. W. L. Place and others, of Milton. Music, it is expected, will be furnished by singers from Janesville and by a choir selected from Milton, under the charge of Prof. N. Vardner, of Janesville. After these exercises supper will be furnished from 8 to 10 p. m. Tickets to the supper and entertainment 50 cents each. As the society prefer to complete the entire payment of the building and its furniture prior to its dedication, such friends as have already expressed a desire to aid in this enterprise, and all others like minded, will have an opportunity on that evening to contribute whatever each may choose to donate. All donations in this direction will be cordially received and gratefully appreciated by the members of said society. D.

Shoppers.

—A. E. Thomas, of Irwin, Iowa, the jolly old bachelor, is shaking hands with his friends here. He still continues to enjoy single blessedness.

—A large number of our young people gave Chester Fisher a surprise the other evening—(only, we guess "Pete" was looking a little out for them.) A pleasant evening was spent and all seem to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Haggart.

—Donation purchases seem to be the rule. Those held at the churches the past week have added a little over $50 to each of their funds.

—Albert Sears and Geo. H. Culver took their departure for the land of promise, Dakota, last Monday.

—Our temperance society held their annual meeting Monday, Feb. 25th, and were addressed by Rev. J. Varty. The same officers were elected with the exception of secretary.

—The writer acknowledges the kindness of friends in sending him an extra musician to fill the place of the one lost. Upon consulting a physician we find it a trifle too small. We admire the poetic style of the author.

—F. N. Parker returned from Dakota Monday, looking bald and hearty. He expects to return with his family soon.

—Ed. Mosley is now running his shop and everything looks like business, new shop—new engine—new tools—everything new except the proprietors and men and we expect they feel new.

—Rev. Mr. Quate, of Palmyra, will occupy the Congregational pulpit next Sunday
